

Access from Narita International Airport to Kashiwanoha-campus Station

Recommended route for international visitors - Kashiwanoha-campus Station (TX13), Chiba, Japan

Approx. time 70-90 min	Approx. fare JPY 1,400-1,500	Transfers 2	Recommended Train
---------------------------	---------------------------------	----------------	----------------------

Route at a glance

Step-by-step directions

1 Narita Airport -> Higashi-Matsudo
Take the Keisei Narita SKY ACCESS - Access Express. From Terminal 1 use Narita Airport Station; from Terminals 2/3 use Airport Terminal 2-3 Station. Do not take the Skyliner for this route.

2 Higashi-Matsudo -> Minami-Nagareyama
Transfer to the JR Musashino Line toward Shin-Matsudo / Fuchu-Honmachi. Get off at Minami-Nagareyama.

3 Minami-Nagareyama -> Kashiwanoha-campus (TX13)
Transfer to the Tsukuba Express toward Moriya / Tsukuba. Use a Semi-Rapid or Local train. Rapid trains may skip Kashiwanoha-campus; if necessary, change at Nagareyama-otakanomori (TX12).

Tickets & payment

A Suica or PASMO IC card is convenient and can be used on all three railway lines. Regular tickets can also be purchased at station ticket machines.

Airport bus

As of August 2026, a direct Narita Airport - Kashiwanoha-campus bus is not listed in Narita Airport's current bus destinations. The train route above is recommended.

Upon arrival: Follow signs for the West Exit. Kashiwanoha Conference Center and Mitsui Garden Hotel Kashiwa-no-ha are approximately 2 minutes on foot from the station.

Travel times and fares are approximate and may vary by connection. Please check the latest timetable before departure. Information checked: August 2026. Sources: Narita International Airport railway/bus information and University of Tokyo Kashiwanoha access guidance.